Srusti Academy of Management celebrated "International Women's Day" on 12.3.2020 at JRD TATA HALL. The objective of this celebration was to acknowledge women's contribution towards family and nation building and felicitate the women leaders of different fields. Around 150 students and faculty members participated in the event.

Ms. Sagarika Nath, IPS, Deputy Commissioner of Police- Traffic, BBSR-Cuttack attended the event as Chief Guest. Ms. Nath gave some valuable insights on protesting violence against women and securing women's rights. According to Ms. Nath, the women should first come forward to raise her voice against injustice. She appreciated the efforts of Special Police Officers and boosted their moral and confidence.

All should respect a women's space and allow them to live life with full dignity. We should not judge them by the clothes they wear rather by their potential and credibility she emphasized.

Ms. Snigdha Panigrahy, Former Member, Odisha State Commission for Women and Head, Internal Complaint Committee, Srusti Academy of Management was the Guest of Honour who appreciated the video on women empowerment prepared by the students of Srusti Digital Team and urged the students and youth to take charge of this equality and be the change agents in society. According to Ms. Panigrahy, youth should change their attitude and mindset towards each other. Learning from our mistakes will help us in achieving big.

Dr. Chidatmika Khatua, Educationist and Social Entrepreneur was the Guest of Honour who was overwhelmed by the response and the value shown by the students and opined that we all should Think Clean and Act Clean. The women are powered by birth and they should know their rights and recognize their true potential first. She also advocated for tribal women empowerment and beauty lies not only in looks but it is something beyond. She stated that students are the dreamers so they should see and chase their dreams.

IMBA students performed a skit on the struggle and empowerment of an acid attack survivor with a message that the culprits can never damage the indomitable spirit of a woman. Srusti Academy of Management felicitated some of the eminent personalities in the field of sports and entrepreneurship and the names are Ms. Nishita Baliarsingh, Ms. Sunita Mohanty and Ms. Gouri Mohanty. Srusti Academy also acknowledged the service of its D grade female employees by presenting gift packets as a token of appreciation during the event. Dr. Pragyan Parimita Sarangi, HOD-IMBA and the coordinator of this event delivered vote of thanks at the end.
